TACTICAL RIFLE CASE SAFETY INSTRUCTIONS

Introduction

Thank you for choosing the Brownells Tactical Rifle Case. This guide provides essential safety instructions and guidelines to ensure the safe use of your product. Please read this document carefully to avoid potential hazards and ensure the longevity of your rifle case.

General Safety Guidelines

- Always ensure that the rifle case is used in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions.
- Inspect the case before each use to check for any signs of damage or wear.
- Keep the rifle case out of reach of children and vulnerable individuals.
- Store the case in a cool, dry place away from direct sunlight and extreme temperatures.
- Report any unsafe conditions or incidents related to the product to the appropriate authorities.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Ensure that all firearms and accessories stored in the case are unloaded before placing them inside.
- Avoid overloading the case with excessive weight, which may compromise its integrity.
- Regularly clean the case to maintain its waterresistant properties and overall condition.
- Do not use the case for purposes other than storing and transporting firearms and related accessories.
- Be cautious when using the case in wet conditions; while it is waterresistant, prolonged exposure to water may still cause damage.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Unpacking the Case

- Carefully remove the rifle case from its packaging.
- Check for any visible damage or missing components.

2. Preparing for Use

- Open the case using the #8 deluxe zipper and ensure that the zipper pulls are functioning correctly.
- Lay the case flat on a stable surface.

3. Loading the Case

- Place your unloaded rifle inside the case, ensuring it fits snugly without excessive force.
- Utilize the thick, soft padding to protect the rifle from impact.
- Store extra magazines in the designated pouches with Velcro flaps for secure storage.

4. Closing the Case

- Ensure that all contents are securely inside the case.
- Close the case and zip it up completely, ensuring no gaps are left open.

5. Transporting the Case

- Carry the case using the handles provided, ensuring a firm grip.
- Avoid dragging the case on rough surfaces to prevent wear and tear.

Disposal Instructions

- When disposing of the rifle case, ensure it is done in accordance with local regulations regarding plastic and textile waste.
- If the case is damaged beyond repair, consider recycling it if possible.
- Do not burn the case, as it may release harmful substances.

Contact Information for Further Support

For any questions or concerns regarding the safety and use of your Brownells Tactical Rifle Case, please refer to the manufacturer's contact information provided with your purchase.

Thank you for your attention to these safety instructions. Your compliance ensures not only your safety but also the longevity of your product. Enjoy using your Brownells Tactical Rifle Case responsibly.
