The Lite Carbon Fiber Barrel sets the standard for a lightweight barrel - bull barrel match accuracy at half the weight! A stainless steel barrel fitted with a woven carbon fiber tube creates an air space between the barrel and sleeve, helping the barrel stay cool under rapid-fire conditions. The rigidity of the carbon fiber tube allows us to put the barrel in tension, minimizing barrel vibrations typically found on smaller barrel diameters. FEATURES Stainless steel barrel Laser-Hardened Breech 1/2 x 28 muzzle threads machined on barrel (no adapters) minimizing POI shift when fitted with a suppressor
