American Classic Tactical Double Rifle Cases

Safety Instructions

Introduction

Thank you for choosing the American Classic Tactical Double Rifle Case by Savior Equipment. This guide provides essential safety instructions to ensure the safe use of your rifle case. Please read the following information carefully to maximize your safety and the longevity of your product.

General Safety Guidelines

- Always ensure that the rifle case is used in accordance with local laws and regulations regarding firearms and their storage.
- Inspect the case regularly for any signs of wear or damage. Do not use the case if it is damaged.
- Keep the case away from extreme temperatures and moisture to avoid degradation of materials.
- Ensure that the case is stored in a secure location to prevent unauthorized access, especially if children are present.
- Be aware of the weight of the case when loaded, as it can become heavy and may require proper lifting techniques to avoid injury.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Padded Double Rifle Slots:
 - Always secure your rifles in the padded slots to prevent movement during transport.
- Hook & Loop Lockdown Straps:
 - Ensure that all straps are properly fastened to prevent your rifles from shifting.
- Padded Muzzle & Stock Sleeves:
 - Use the padded sleeves to protect sensitive parts of your rifles during transport.
- Secondary Compartment:
 - Do not overload the secondary compartment to maintain balance and ease of carrying.
- Zippered Pockets:
 - Ensure that all zippers are fully closed before moving the case to prevent items from falling out.
- Adjustable Padded Backpack Straps:
 - Adjust the straps to fit your body properly for comfort and stability while carrying.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Loading Your Rifles:

- Open the case fully and lay it flat.
- Place your rifles into the padded double rifle slots, ensuring they are secure.
- Use the hook & loop lockdown straps to secure the rifles in place.

- Place the muzzle and stock sleeves over the respective ends of each rifle.

2. Storing Accessories:

- Utilize the secondary compartment for storing additional gear.
- Place handguns in the padded pistol sleeves and ensure they are secured.
- Use the zippered pockets for smaller accessories, ensuring they are closed before transport.

3. Carrying the Case:

- Adjust the padded backpack straps to fit comfortably on your back.
- If carrying by hand, use the durable side release buckles to secure any excess strap length.

4. Transporting the Case:

- Always carry the case with both hands if possible, especially when loaded.
- Be cautious of your surroundings to avoid bumping into objects that may cause damage.

Disposal Instructions

When your American Classic Tactical Double Rifle Case reaches the end of its life, please dispose of it responsibly:

- Check local regulations regarding the disposal of polyester and other materials used in the case.
- If possible, recycle the fabric components according to local recycling guidelines.
- Dispose of any metal components in accordance with local metal recycling programs.

Contact Information for Further Support

For any inquiries regarding safety, usage, or product support, please contact the manufacturer directly through the provided contact details on the product packaging or the official website.

Thank you for following these safety instructions. Your safety and the safety of others is our priority. Enjoy your experience with the American Classic Tactical Double Rifle Case!
